Parking

Parking in Ann Arbor can take longer than expected due to multiple events taking place simultaneously around campus. We encourage you to allow time for parking. Make it a full evening – have a meal at any of the wonderful restaurants on State Street, or simply enjoy the park-like setting of north campus.

On central campus, we suggest that you consider accessing the Fletcher Street Structure from the Palmer Drive entrance. There's a light at the intersection of Palmer and Washtenaw, making it easier to access the structure. After turning onto Palmer Drive, continue straight - past the Palmer Drive visitor parking structure – to access the Fletcher structure. An attendant is assigned before performances.

Free parking is available on north campus after 6 PM in lots located off Fuller Road, Beal Avenue, and Hayward Avenue. Please note that access to the theatres from these outlying lots involve long walks and stairs.

We also encourage you to order a pre-paid $5 parking pass for each of the productions you attend. They can be redeemed at the Thayer or Fletcher Street Structures on central campus or at the Walgreen parking lot on north campus up to two hours prior to show time.

For any questions regarding the U-M parking lots and structures, please contact Parking Customer Service at 764-8291 (M-F, 7:30a-4:30p) or at 764-7474 (evenings & weekend)

Access for Persons with Disabilities

All University of Michigan venues are accessible for persons with disabilities. Ask about our theatres' assistive listening system and our wheelchair seating. Large print programs are available upon request. Call 734-764-2538 for more information.

Start Time & Latecomers

The School of Music, Theatre & Dance makes every effort to begin events at the published time. All of our events take place on the UM campus, which does have limited parking and may have several events occurring simultaneously in different venues. Please allow plenty of extra time to park and find your seats.

Latecomers will be asked to wait in the lobby until seated by ushers. Most lobbies have been outfitted with monitors and/or speakers so that latecomers will not miss the performance entirely. The late seating break is determined by the artists and will generally occur during a suitable repertory break in the program.

Children and Families

Children under the age of three will not be admitted to performances. If your child proves disruptive or excessively restless, you may be asked to leave by House Management. Remember, everyone must have a ticket regardless of age.

Group Sales

Looking for a unique social opportunity or educational experience for your group or organization? Whether you are looking for a way to bring together employees or friends or a way to introduce your students to live performing arts, the SMTD has special discounted tickets available for almost every performance for groups of 10 or more. For more information on Group Sales, contact Sarah Wilber at 763-3100.

Curtain Call Fridays

Stick around after the applause! Moderated by members of the faculty and featuring a rotating array of cast and artistic team members, Curtain Call Fridays offer a rare opportunity for audience members to talk about the production, exploring topics that range from character development to the creative decisions behind the production or issues raised by the work. The discussions are free and open to all. You are welcome to attend the discussion and see the play another day. Curtain Call Fridays are sponsored by the Friends of Dance, Friends of Musical Theatre, Friends of Opera, and Friends of Theatre & Drama.
